SECTION 1 INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this handbook is to provide you with a quick reference about training programs, policies and processes, roles and responsibilities guiding you through your learning experience with Current Training.

Current Training

Thank you for considering training with Current Training.

Current Training is registered training organisation (RTO) registered with the Vet Regulator.

Current Training aims to deliver high quality, innovative and engaging training that is relevant to clients, employers and industry. Our commitment to continuous improvement means we are constantly developing and improving new resources, processes and facilitation methods to remain ahead in technology and industry standards.

Current Training headquarters is:

- 18-116 Lipscombe Road Deception Bay Queensland 4508

To see the full range of training products and services that Current Training offers head to our website:

- www.currenttraining.edu.au

As an RTO, Current Training is bound to comply with the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (SRTOs) 2015. Training Services provided to clients follow policies and processes developed to meet the VET Quality Framework and SRTOs 2015.

Service Commitment

Current Training is committed to providing quality training and assessment services to its learners.

We aim to:

- Provide training and assessment services that meet industry needs and trends;
- Deliver high quality, innovative and engaging training;
- Maintain a person-centred approach;
- Foster relationships with our clients, supporting them through their career;
- Provide flexible learning opportunities;
- Provide a supportive, facilitative and open learning environment;
- Ensure all training is delivered by qualified trainer and assessors with the necessary skills and experience;
- Ensure all training is continually monitored and improved;
- Maintain a healthy and effective learning environment for clients;
- Produce competent and confident workers that benefit the community and industry.

Training Programs

Current Training delivers a range of training programs, both accredited and non-accredited, which we conduct as public courses or customised for clients and industry. Our holistic approach ensures clients' needs are met. Accredited programs have been approved by State and /or Commonwealth Government.

SECTION 2 CLIENT/STUDENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Current Training conducts training courses at various venues to suit client needs, course type, and learning styles. The following client etiquette guidelines will help foster a healthy learning environment for all clients.

Assessment

All assessments must be submitted by the due date. If you are having difficulty completing an assessment, you should discuss it with your trainer/assessor well in advance of the due date. This way the trainer/assessor may be able to offer support or grant additional time. Please note there may be conditions or penalties to gaining an extension.

Assessment malpractice

Assessment malpractice includes cheating, collusion and plagiarism.

Current Training regards the integrity of assessment as critical to its professional responsibilities as an RTO and therefore strives to ensure the assessment processes are not compromised. Current Training has policies and procedures in place for dealing with assessment malpractice.

- Cheating -
All assessments must be 100% your own work. Cheating or the use of another person's work and submitting as your own is cheating and will not be tolerated.
- Collusion -
Collusion is the presentation of work, which is the result in whole or in part of unauthorized collaboration with another person or persons. It is your responsibility to ensure that other clients do not have opportunity to copy your work.
- Plagiarism -
Copying from a published work (including the internet), without referencing, will not be tolerated. This includes presentation of work which has been copied in whole or in part from another person's work or from any other source such as the Internet, published books, and periodicals. This includes systematic re-wording or changing key nouns and verbs.
You must follow referencing guidelines if you take another person's idea and put it into your own words.

Attendance

Attendance in training is recorded each day. These records are required for both learning and health and safety and compliance reasons. Client attendance in class is paramount to successful completion of learning and assessment outcomes.

It is expected that clients arrive to class on time and remain for the full duration. Should it be necessary for you to leave a class early – you must advise the trainer/assessor before the class commences.

All classroom sessions are designed to provide clients the essential knowledge and skills required for relevant units of competency. It is expected however that clients will undertake additional reading and research.

If you are absent from class, it is your responsibility to catch up on any work missed.

If you are going to be absent from a scheduled class or activity, please advise your trainer/assessor or Current Training administration personnel. Other arrangements can be made, including self-paced learning or alternative training dates.

Punctuality

As a courtesy to other learnings and the trainer/assessor, all clients must be punctual throughout the training day, including returning from breaks. Punctuality shows respect and is essential to avoid disruption to other clients and the trainer/assessor.

Behaviour

Clients are expected to behave appropriately in a mature and professional manner at all times. All clients are expected to take responsibility for their own learning and behaviour during training and assessment. Misconduct will not be tolerated.

Misconduct includes -

- Any offensive conduct or unlawful activity (e.g. Theft, fraud, violence, assault);
- Interfering with another person's property;

- Removing, damaging or mistreating Current Training property or equipment;
- Cheating/plagiarism;
- Interfering with another person's ability to learn through disruptions during training;
- Breach of confidentiality;
- Inappropriate language;
- Serious negligence, including WHS non-compliance;
- Discrimination, harassment, intimidation or victimisation;
- Being affected by drugs or alcohol and being unfit to participate in learning activities.

Respect for others

It is expected that the behaviour of all persons in the learning environment ensure a positive learning experience. Respect for other clients and the trainer/assessor is expected.

Current Training retains the right at all times to remove disruptive clients from the training environment.

- You will be expected to treat staff and fellow clients with respect and observe any client etiquette requirements which appear in this handbook or requested during the course by a trainer/assessor.
- Inappropriate language and actions will not be tolerated.
- Harassment, bullying and intimidation of staff or fellow learners will not be tolerated.
- Treat facilities and equipment with due care and respect.
- You are required to respect the rights of others and treat others in a manner which is fair and non-discriminatory.

Breaks

Your trainer will advise of timing for all breaks. Typically, though the following break times have been allocated, however they may vary, most onsite delivery breaks will be in line with the workplace:

- 15 minutes duration for - Morning and afternoon tea breaks
- 45 minutes duration for - Lunch breaks

Change of personal details

Clients are required to ensure their personal details recorded with Current Training are up-to-date at all times. Should your circumstances or details change please update your record through your client login account.

Disciplinary Processes

Current Training may implement client discipline processes should a client be found to be acting inappropriately, due to misconduct or assessment malpractice.

Any breaches of discipline will result in the person being given a 'verbal warning'.

Further disciplinary processes may include:

- The client being asked to justify why they should continue to participate in the learning group;
- Suspension from the training room;
- Expulsion from the training room; or
- Expulsion from the Training course.

Dress & Hygiene Requirements

Clients are to be well presented and appropriately dressed during all training. Dress requirements include:

- Neat, comfortable clothing in the classroom environment;
- Appropriate work attire, including personal protective clothing (PPE) for training in workplace or simulated environments;
- Appropriate footwear must be worn at all times;
- Since you will be working in close proximity with others, care with your personal hygiene (clothing, hair, deodorant etc) is requested.

Duty of Care

Under Workplace Health and Safety legislation, clients have a duty of care to maintain a safe environment for both themselves and their fellow clients.

- Should you be involved in an accident which results in personal injury and/or damage to equipment or facilities, notify your trainer/assessor immediately.
- If you have a personal health condition which may become critical while attending training, please advise us before commencing the course. All information will be treated in strict confidence and is only needed so Current Training can provide support or treatment should an emergency arise.
- Emergency procedures and exit plans must be followed.

You have a duty to:

- Protect your own health and safety and to avoid adversely affecting the health and safety of any other person;
- Not wilfully or recklessly interfere or misuse anything provided by Current Training in the interests of health, safety and welfare;
- Cooperate with health and safety directives given by staff of Current Training;
- Ensure that you are not affected by the consumption of drugs or alcohol.

Evaluation and Feedback

Current Training values all feedback from clients as it assists us to continuously improve the products and services we offer. Clients are encouraged to provide us with feedback, both positive and constructive.

Current Training has developed some feedback forms for you to provide feedback, you can also go to our website and provide feedback straight to the Managing Director.

At times you may receive electronic AQTF evaluation forms through your email, please take the time to fill these out, they help us systematically evaluate how we are doing with our training.

Thank you in advance for your comments.

Learner Support services

Current Training understands that there may be times when personal issues may affect your ability to undertake your training. Current Training has identified a number of support services for clients who have special needs or require additional support and assistance to undertake or complete their learning.

Mentoring & Guidance

Current Training can provide clients with mentoring, coaching and guidance on course content, as well as effective learning and study techniques.

Centrelink

Centrelink may be able to assist you in payment for your training. Payments are in many instances in accordance to asset tests and may also be determined based on the number of hours undertaken. These may include:

- Youth allowance
- Austudy payment
- Newstart allowance
- ABSTUDY
- CentrePay

You should discuss your own personal circumstances and opportunities with your local Centre link office.

Language, Literacy Numeracy

Discuss with us your options for further language literacy and numeracy development.

Clients receive a copy of training and /or assessment materials as part of the course fee. Should you lose or misplace the materials you are provided, additional fees for replacement of materials will be incurred.

Making the Most of your Training

It is very important to make the most of your training opportunity. Please note it is your responsibility to do this. To optimize your own learning and successful completion, undertake to do the following:

- Attend all training sessions and complete all required reading and learning activities;
- Prepare well in advance of each training session;
- Be a willing participant;
- Work with fellow learners;
- Respect other people's opinions;
- Ensure you have a clear understanding of the assessment requirements;
- Take responsibility for the quality of evidence that you submit to the Assessor;
- Keep track of your progress;
- Complete and submit all assessment on time, tasks using clear and concise language;
- Be willing to contact your trainer/assessor if you do not understand the training activity or assessment task.

Mobile Phones

All phones must be turned off during training, as a courtesy to the Trainer/assessor and other clients. In an emergency where you need to be contacted, please advise your trainer/assessor so that arrangements can be made.

Security

Do not leave handbags or other valuables unattended. Although the building may be reasonably secure, you are ultimately responsible for your own belongings. Current Training accepts no responsibility for any belongings which may be stolen or go missing.

SECTION 3 COURSE INFORMATION

Accredited Training Programs

Accredited programs are competency based which means that training and assessment focus on the development and recognition of a person's ability to apply relevant knowledge and skills to perform workplace tasks to a specified standard.

The specific skills and knowledge required for a particular workplace activity are set out in Units of Competency which can be grouped together to formulate the completion of a nationally recognised qualification. Nationally recognised qualifications are outlined in Training Packages. These can be viewed at www.training.gov.au.

Each qualification has a list of employability skills which describe the non-technical skills and competencies that are important for effective and successful participation in the workforce. For each qualification there are specific employability skills listed under the following headings:

- Communication
- Teamwork
- Problem solving
- Initiative and enterprise
- Planning and organizing
- Self-management
- Learning
- Technology.

These employability skills will be part of the assessment requirements of a nationally accredited course.

Competency

It is important to note that the rules and requirements of a Unit of Competency and a qualification are applied to all clients regardless of where they are, or the mode of training delivery provided. You could be a full-time client in a classroom or the workplace, or you could be applying for recognition of the skills and knowledge currently held.

Each Unit of Competency is made up of the following:

- Elements;
- Performance criteria;
- Required knowledge and skills;
- A range of variables;
- Critical aspects of evidence;
- Any pre or co requisites (if applicable).

To be deemed Competent in any Unit of Competency you must be able to provide evidence of the required skills and knowledge to complete work tasks to the standard that is required in the workplace. Skills need to be demonstrated in a range of situations and environments (which could include simulated applications in a learning environment) over a period of time.

Evidence

Evidence is the material proof that you have performed the specified competency or task to the required standard. Your evidence requirements will be determined by the Unit of Competency, employability skill requirements, industry expectations, Government regulations, and your qualifications and current experience. Evidence can take many forms and you will be required to present more than just one piece of evidence.

Assessment tools that we will provide to you set out the exact requirements for evidence for each unit/module.

Examples of evidence could include one or more of the following:

- Specific assessments tasks set by your Assessor
- Observation reports
- Certificates and awards
- Examples of work completed or special projects
- Current licenses
- Position descriptions and performance reviews
- Third party reports
- Question responses
- Tests

Your evidence must also demonstrate the following:

- That you can do the job or task to the required standard
- Understand why the job should be done in a particular way
- Handle unexpected issues or problems
- Work with others 'in a team'
- Do more than one thing at a time, e.g. perform the task and be aware of the occupational health and safety requirements
- Know the workplace rules and procedures

Assessment

Assessment is an integral part of your learning if you wish to complete successfully and gain certification.

The assessment process will be explained at orientation and throughout your program. Assessors will also be available to you if you have any questions.

Assessment is the process of collecting evidence and making judgement on whether competency has been achieved to confirm that an individual can perform to the standards expected in the workplace and as expressed in relevant competency standards.

Throughout the training program you will be assessed to see if you have gained the necessary skills and knowledge to achieve the qualification. Your trainer/assessor is required to ensure that the assessment tasks you undertake meet the national principles of assessment and rules of evidence (see below for more information).

Various assessments tasks /activities may be involved including, but not limited to:

- Observation of performance;
- Assignments;
- Written activities;
- written / oral questioning;
- oral presentations;
- workplace performance
- projects
- case studies;
- role plays/ simulations;
- demonstration of skills;
- online assessments;
- portfolio of evidence.

Certification will only be given to clients who successfully complete all assessment requirements for a course.

Current Training is required to meet stringent quality requirements in the conduct of all assessments.

The Current Training has carefully constructed and developed assessment resources to meet these quality requirements, as well as be user friendly to clients.

Principles of Assessment

Assessments will be conducted in accordance with the following principles of assessment.

Valid	Any assessment decision of the RTO is justified, based on the evidence of performance of the individual learner. Validity requires: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Assessment against the unit/s of competency and the associated assessment requirement covers the broad range of skills and knowledge that are essential to competent performance; • Assessment of knowledge and skills is integrated with their practical application; • Assessment to be based on evidence that demonstrates that a learner could demonstrate these skills and knowledge in other similar situations; and • Judgement of competence is based on evidence of learner performance that is aligned to the unit/s of competency and associated assessments requirements.
Reliable	Evidence presented for assessment is consistently interpreted and assessment results are comparable irrespective of the assessor conducting the assessment.
Flexible	Assessment is flexible to the individual learner by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflecting the learner's needs; • Assessing competencies held by the Learner no matter how or where they have been acquired; and • Drawing from a range of assessment methods and using those that are appropriate to the context, the unit of competency and associated assessment requirements, and the individual.
Fair	The individual learner's needs are considered in the assessment process. Where appropriate reasonable adjustments are applied by the RTO to take into account the individual learner's needs. The RTO informs the learner about the assessment process, and provides the learner with the opportunity to challenge the result of the assessment and be reassessed if necessary

Rules of Evidence and Assessment

Current Training is required to ensure that all evidence provided by clients, as proof of their competency, meets the following "rules of evidence".

Valid	The assessor is assured that the learner has the skills, knowledge and attributes as described in the module or unit of competency and associated assessment requirements.
Sufficient	The assessor is assured that the quality, quantity and relevance of the assessment evidence enables a judgement to be made of a learner's competency.
Authentic	The assessor is assured that the evidence presented for assessment is the learner's own work.
Current	The assessor is assured that the assessment evidence demonstrates current competency. This requires the assessment evidence to be from the present or the very recent past.

Course Assessment

There will be assessment tasks set for each course regardless of the learning mode. Assessment activities and expectations will be explained to clients and are outlined within learner / assessment resources.

Many courses require assessment to be completed after the course, as workplace performance is essential in competency-based learning.

Presentation of Assessments/ Assignments

- All assessments should be typed.
- Handwritten assessments are accepted; however, handwriting must be clear and easy to read.
- If you are mailing an assignment, it must be received by the due date. Current Training does not accept responsibility for any lost assignments. Please ensure you keep a copy of your assignment prior to submission.
- All assignments are registered as they are received.
- We endeavour to assess all assessments within 10 working days of receipt.
- Clients are entitled to one resubmit assessments. If the re-submissions are still deemed NYC, clients may be offered the opportunity to re-submit at a fee. No further re-submits are allowed. Clients must re-enrol in the course again, paying the full course fee of the day.

Assessment results

Clients have access to their own learning account which will indicate assessments undertaken and the units of competency that the individual has attained.

Results of assessment are provided to clients as soon as is practical. These results are available through your client login account. Assessment results are confidential at all times and will not be given to any other party unless a written request signed by the client is received in advance.

Reasonable adjustments

Clients with disabilities are encouraged to discuss with Current Training any 'reasonable adjustments' to learning and assessment processes which they consider would be necessary or assist them in the performance of their studies.

Careful consideration will be given to any requests for reasonable adjustment of this nature, and, where reasonably practicable, such adjustments will be made. There may however be circumstances where it will not be reasonable or reasonably practicable for the Current Training to accommodate or where other adjustment may be more appropriate. Reasonable adjustments cannot compromise the integrity of competency-based training and assessment.

Extensions for Assessment

It is expected that all assessment tasks are handed in on the due date. Should you require additional time to complete an assessment you must communicate with your assessor and apply for an extension.

Certificates

Types of Certification

In general, four types of certificates are issued by Current Training. Certificates can only be awarded by Current Training in accordance with our approved qualification scope.

- Qualification – issued under the Australian Qualification Framework (AQF) for nationally recognised training. Full qualifications can only be issued once the client has been deemed competent across all the relevant units of competency making up the qualification.
- Record of Results – accompanies a qualification issued under the Australian Qualification Framework (AQF) for nationally recognised training. This document supplements the qualification listing all units of competency achieved for the qualification.
- Statement of Attainment (SOA) – issued under the Australian Qualification Framework (AQF) for nationally recognised training. Issued when a client is deemed competent in a unit or a cluster of units of competency. Minimum achievement for a SOA is one unit of competency. You can request a SOA at any time during your training.

- Certificate of Attendance – for non-nationally recognised training. Issued when a client attends a short course which is not within the Australian qualifications framework (AQF). To receive a Certificate of Attendance, the client must have a satisfactory attendance rate.

Certificates will only be posted to clients at their nominated postal address as shown in their client login account. The onus is on the client to ensure their address details are correct.

Certificates will not be sent to other parties, without the expressed prior written permission from the client. Duplicate or replacement copies of certificates incur a fee.

Course Delivery

Current Training ensures the following resources are in place:

- Trainer/assessors and Assessors with appropriate qualifications, and experience;
- Course materials appropriate to the methods of delivery and assessment requirements;
- All necessary copyright authorisations;
- Appropriate equipment and facilities.

Training and assessment methods used by Current Training meet specific quality requirements and are chosen to best suit the unit of competency, while giving consideration to the learning style of the client. The provision of training often includes a blended approach with a combination of on and off-the-job methods.

A number of delivery methods will be used throughout the training to help you achieve the necessary skills. Learning is a partnership that involves participation from all involved.

Delivery methods may include, but are not limited to:

- Practical demonstrations
- audio/visual presentations
- group participation/ discussions
- trainer/facilitator instruction
- practical activities
- self-paced activities
- individual projects
- workplace based training
- case studies

Flexible Delivery

Flexible delivery focuses on learning rather than teaching and to provide the best possible learning experience for the client. This means that the client has greater control over what, when and how they learn.

Current Training offers various forms of delivery to accommodate the varying needs of clients. Modes of delivery available for most courses include classroom (face-to-face) environment, workplace –based, correspondence, on-line, Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) or a combination of these.

Language, Literacy and Numeracy

Each Training Package sets a minimum requirement in language, literacy and numeracy skills of participants, with which the Current Training must abide.

Current Training makes appropriate concessions for language, literacy and numeracy issues of clients where these concessions do not compromise the requirements of the relevant Training Package and the integrity, equity and fairness of assessment.

Where there are entry requirements for courses e.g. literacy in English and numeracy, these are clearly stated in pre-enrolment and enrolment information.

Advice is given to all clients on appropriate actions if there is a need to update literacy and numeracy skills. Current Training can assist in providing this additional development prior to completing your enrolment into vocational skills.

Recognition

Recognition is the collective term and includes:

- Recognition of prior learning (RPL);
- Recognition of current competency (RCC);
- Credit transfer (CT); and
- Mutual Recognition (MR).

All clients have the opportunity to apply for recognition. This means that you can submit evidence for a Unit(s) of Competency and have it assessed by a qualified Assessor without completing the training.

Current Training believes that no learner should be required to undertake a unit of competency for which they are already able to demonstrate satisfactory achievement of the performance outcomes, as stated in the endorsed training package or nationally recognised course.

Current Training aims to maximise the recognition of a learner's prior skills and knowledge whilst at all times maintaining the integrity and standards of the defined learning outcomes of the specific qualification or course of study. Clients who consider they already possess the competencies identified in all or part of any course/qualification offered by Current Training may seek recognition.

If you think you have the necessary knowledge and skills to match a Unit(s) of Competency or a qualification at the required standard you need to contact our Compliance Manager on 0434 043 781 or email brent.mills@currenttraining.edu.au who will provide the information you need to complete an application.

Recognition Process

Recognition is a method of assessing if you have evidence of competency for a particular unit of competency that you are enrolled in. It is important to remember that Recognition is an assessment process not an assumption of competence.

Recognition is the determination, on an individual basis, of the competencies obtained by a client through:

- previous formal training
- work experience, and/or
- life experience.

Recognition therefore determines the subsequent advanced standing to which the client is entitled in relation to a course/qualification. The main focus of Recognition is what has been learned rather than how, where or when it was learned. Recognition focuses on both the demonstration of competence and the currency of that competence to industry standards.

It is important to note; the onus is on the client to document and present evidence to justify a claim for recognition and present their case to the satisfaction of the Assessor. (Apprentices/Trainees) The claim for RPL/Recognition under the User Choice contract must be done up front, before the training actually commences and cannot be done during the traineeship. Try going to the DETE website for more info on RPL <https://training.qld.gov.au/training/recognition/rpl>

Any documents that you provide to support your claim of competency must be the originals rather than copies. Your original documents will be photocopied and handed back to you. It is also expected that any evidence submitted is your own and if any part of the work is the work of others, that this is formally acknowledged and advised.

Recognition Decision

Regardless of the type of evidence that you submit, Assessors must be confident that the evidence meets the following criteria:

- Full requirements of the Unit of Competency(s);
- Any Regulatory requirements;
- Authenticity - That it is your own evidence and can be authenticated;
- That you can perform the competency consistently and reliably;
- Is at the standard expected in industry and set out in the Australian Qualification Framework (AQF);
- Sufficiency - There is sufficient evidence to make a judgment.

Current Training is committed to ensuring that all judgments made by Assessors against the same competency standards are consistent. Your Assessor will examine the evidence that you present and then make a judgment on that evidence which will be either:

- Competent (C) - you have been deemed competent against all the requirements of the Unit/s of Competency
- Not Yet Competent (NYC) - you have not yet demonstrated competency to all requirements.

Your assessor will advise you what you can do if you receive a NYC for your assessment task. If you are deemed NYC in your initial assessment, you are allowed a second attempt. However, if you are deemed NYC in the second attempt, you will be required to re-enrol. Please talk to your assessor if you have any concerns.

For further information on Recognition, please see Current Training Recognition policy.

Mutual Recognition

Current Training recognises the AQF qualifications and Statements of Attainment issued by other Registered Training Organisations (RTOs). This is commonly referred to as Mutual Recognition or Credit Transfer. Mutual recognition is applicable when a Statement of Attainment or qualification provided by a client has the same national competency codes as those that form part of the training and assessment program within which the client is enrolled or is intending to enrol. Clients are required to formally apply for Mutual Recognition. With Mutual Recognition clients are not required to undertake learning in the unit/s again, the client is exempt.

Special Needs

Clients intending to enrol for training with the Current Training are requested to advise us if they have any physical or other impairment (e.g. English language, literacy or numeracy difficulties, dyslexia, etc) which may adversely affect their ability to successfully undertake training and assessment, prior to enrolment.

Clients with disabilities or impairments are encouraged to discuss with the Director any 'special needs' and/or 'reasonable adjustments' to the study environment which they consider are necessary or would assist them in the performance of their studies.

The Director, in collaboration with the client, will assess the potential for the client to successfully complete the training which may include flexible delivery options to optimise the ease and benefit of the client's learning.

Trainer and Assessors

All Trainers and Assessors are qualified in training and assessment and the vocational area which they are delivering. To remain compliant with the regulator and the RTO standards 2015, trainers must have practical experience and maintain their currency in industry.

SECTION 4 POLICIES

Access and Equity

Current Training is committed to promoting, encouraging and valuing equity and diversity with respect to its clients and to providing them with a positive learning environment to achieve success. Current Training will ensure services offered are provided in a fair and equitable manner to all clients, free from bias.

Current Training abides by equal opportunity principles, providing access to the benefits of training and assessment to all clients regardless of gender, sex, pregnancy, race, marital status, sexuality, age, family/carer responsibilities, culture, linguistic background, disability, transgender, political conviction or religious belief.

All clients have equitable access to training resources and facilities, support services and information, trainer and assessors, learning and assessment materials and opportunities.

For further information, see Current Training Access & Equity Policy.

Appeals

Current Training ensures that clients have access to a fair and equitable process for appeals against assessment decisions. An appeals and reassessment process are an integral part of all training and assessment pathways leading to a nationally recognised qualification or Statement of Attainment under the Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF).

- Clients have the right to lodge an appeal against an assessment decision if they feel they were unfairly treated during an assessment, and/or where they feel the assessment decision is incorrect and they have grounds for an appeal.
- The principles of natural justice and procedural fairness are adopted at every stage of the appeal process.
- The appeals policy is publicly available, via Current Training website.
- The appellant can provide detail of their appeal either verbally and/or in writing.
- All appeals must be lodged within 7 calendar days of the date of the assessment result notification to the client.
- If the appeals process fails to resolve the appeal or the appellant is not satisfied with the outcome of the appeal, the matter will be referred to an independent third party for review, at the request of the appellant. All costs incurred for the third-party review will be advised to the appellant.
- Every appeal is heard by a suitably qualified independent assessor or panel, who will be asked to make an independent assessment of the application.
- All appeals are acknowledged in writing and finalised as soon as practicable.
- Current Training may charge a fee for the appeals process where an external assessor is engaged. Should this be the case, all costs incurred will be advised to the appellant.
- If the appeal will take in excess of 60 calendar days to finalise Current Training will inform the appellant in writing providing the reasons why more than 60 calendar days are required. The appellant will also be provided with regular updates on the progress of the appeal.
- Current Training strives to deal with appeal issues as soon as they emerge, in order to avoid further disruption or the need for a formal complaint process.
- All appeals will be handled 'In-Confidence' and will not affect or bias the progress of the participant in any current or future training.

Grounds of appeal

Valid grounds for an appeal against an assessment decision (where the trainee feels the assessment decision is incorrect) could include the following:

- The judgement as to whether competency has been achieved and demonstrated was made incorrectly,
- The judgement was not made in accordance with the Assessment Plan.
- Alleged bias of the assessor;
- Alleged lack of competence of the assessor;
- Alleged wrong information from the assessor regarding the assessment process;

- Alleged inappropriate assessment process for the particular competency;
- Faulty or inappropriate equipment; and/or
- Inappropriate conditions.

Appeal Outcomes

Appeal outcomes may include:

- a) Appeal is upheld; in this event the following options will be available:
 - i. The original assessment will be re-assessed, potentially by another assessor.
 - ii. Appropriate recognition will be granted.
 - iii. A new assessment shall be conducted/arranged.
- b) Appeal is rejected/ not upheld; in accordance with Current Training assessment policy the client will be required to:
 - i. undertake further training or experience prior to further assessment; or
 - ii. re-submit further evidence; or
 - iii. submit/undertake a new assessment

For further information, see Current Training Appeals Policy.

Client Enrolment

To enrol in a training program simply do so via our website or contact the Administration Office on 07 5498 0181 and we will send out an enrolment form and the information flyer about the course. Simply complete an Enrolment form and send to us, either by email or post.

Enrolments must be received no later than 24 hours prior to the course commencement. Enrolment forms should be returned with payment. Enrolments will be considered tentative until payment has been received.

Once we receive your enrolment an interview will be scheduled. At this interview you will do the following:

- Discuss the course in detail
- Discuss undertaking a training program
- Establish whether you are eligible for government funding (if available)
- Confirm the fees you will have to pay
- Complete a language literacy numeracy test to determine your learning needs
- Be informed about the requirements of a police/working with children check or other licences
- Confirm the date of the mandatory orientation session

Tentative Enrolments

Should enrolment numbers reach maximum, and another person wishes to enrol on a course where there is a tentative enrolment, Current Training will contact the tentative booking for payment confirmation or forfeiture of the tentative booking.

Enrolment Confirmation

All clients receive a letter/email to confirm their enrolment. Written confirmation will outline relevant details, such as venue, date, and course duration.

Client Induction

Induction for all new clients includes the provision of this manual. All clients must complete and return the Induction Checklist, which can be found in Appendix 1.

Trainee and Apprentice Enrolments

If you are a trainee or apprentice and will be undergoing funded training through the Department of Employment, Small Business and Training, you will need to be signed into the traineeship by an Australian Apprentice Support Network provider. The administration at Current Training will receive a 'DELTA' number from the department once you are approved to be funded. Once approved a trainer/representative of Current Training will make an appointment to visit you and your employer. At this visit an Employer Resource Assessment (ERA) will be undertaken to ensure your employer has the correct qualifications, the means and the scope of work to ensure you get the full range of training required by the training package.

Also, the representative will take you through the induction process (checklist, appendix 1) and give you a run down on the structure of the training, workplace visits, supervisor requirements etc. This is done prior to you signing an enrolment form, this is so you are able to make an informed decision to go through with the training. It is also so you are made aware of information provided by the department on the funding you are to be granted, the obligations to you, your employer and the RTO under this funding contract, for loads more info go to; <https://training.qld.gov.au/apprentices> .

The RTO is required to charge you a mandatory student fee (further information is on pages 16-17 student fees user choice 2017-20) throughout your training, this is currently at a rate of $1:60 per nominal hour, (the RTO rep will explain what this means). At the enrolment meeting, you will be asked to sign you acknowledge this student fee, and either you or your employer (whoever agrees to make payment) will then receive invoices as units of competency are completed, or at stages agreed to by both parties.

Once you are confident with the processes, fees and commitments you will then be enrolled into the program of training, this information will be entered into the RTO client management system, where all your results will be kept as you progress. If you do not have a Unique Student Identifier (USI) you will be directed to obtain one from the USI website OR you may elect to have the RTO obtain one on your behalf by providing accepted forms of ID and consenting in the enrolment form, this is mandatory, and no results can be given without a USI.

At the enrolment meeting the representative will also offer you an RPL/Recognition application, this is so if you can provide evidence of prior learning or experience in units of competency, which can potentially reduce the units of competency that you need to do in your traineeship and allow the RTO to adjust the training plan to suit.

Client Selection

Current Training conducts recruitment of clients at all times in an ethical, fair and responsible manner using various methods.

Current Training is committed to ensuring that all client selection processes are fair, equitable and consistent with workplace performance, competency level and the Training Package requirements. Therefore, selection into a training program is based upon the applicant:

- satisfying appropriate funding body entry criteria,
- meeting any pre-requisite qualifications or work experience, and
- meeting any age requirements that may be in place for a particular course

Client enrolments are subject to availability of places on the training program. This is based on the maximum number of participants who can be accommodated, given room capacity, type of course, learning structures, client needs etc.

If a training program is fully booked at the time the client enquires about enrolment into that particular training program they will either be placed on a “reserve” list or offered a place on a date where there are vacancies. Clients on a “reserve” list are given priority should a place become available. Enrolments are strictly on a first-in, first-served basis. Clients must have the appropriate level of language, numeracy and literacy.

Current Training shall ensure that any applicants who do not meet entry requirements are advised of any appropriate pre-entry training they may take to meet eligibility criteria.

Client Records

Current Training maintains an individual client file for every client who undertakes any form of training and assessment with us. This file contains records regarding your personal details provided to us, any training and assessment undertaken and completed. This file is available to you.

In accordance with Privacy laws and confidentiality requirements, your file is kept in a locked cupboard. Only those Current Training personnel who need to have access to your file for training and assessment purposes can access it.

No other person/client can and will have access to your personal client file without your prior written permission.

If you would like access to your personal records simply contact DIRECTOR.

Complaints

Current Training has a fair and equitable process for dealing with client complaints.

All clients have the right to express a concern or problem they may be experiencing when undergoing training. The following is an outline of the Complaints Policy.

Principles

- Complaints are treated seriously and dealt with promptly, impartially, sensitively and confidentially.
- Complaints will be resolved on an individual case basis, as they arise.
- All clients have the right to express a concern or problem and/or lodge a complaint if they are dissatisfied with the training and assessment services that they have been provided (including through a third party) or the behavioral conduct of another learner.
- All complaints are acknowledged in writing and finalised as soon as practicable.
- The complaint resolution procedure is based on the understanding that no action will be taken without consulting the complainant and respondent, using a process of discussion, cooperation and conciliation.
- The rights of the complainant and respondent will be acknowledged and protected throughout the complaint resolution process, including the conduct of separate interviews initially.
- In the interest of confidentiality, the number of people involved in the resolution process will be kept to a minimum.
- Final decisions will be made by the Director Current Training or an independent party to the complaint.
- The complaint resolution procedure emphasises mediation and education while acknowledging that in some instances formal procedures and disciplinary action may be required.
- If the complaints process fails to resolve the complaint or the complainant is not satisfied with the outcome of the complaint the matter will be referred to an independent third party for review, at the request of the complainant. All costs incurred for the third-party review will be advised to the complainant.
- If the complaint will take in excess of 60 calendar days to finalise Current Training will inform the complainant in writing providing the reasons why more than 60 calendar days are required. The complainant will also be provided with regular updates on the progress of the complaint.
- Victimisation of complainants, respondents or anyone one else involved in the complaint resolution process will not be tolerated.
- All complaints will be handled as Staff-In-Confidence and will not affect or bias the progress of the client in any current or future training. The rights of the complainant and respondent will be acknowledged and protected throughout the complaint resolution process.

Lodging a Complaint

Should you wish to lodge a complaint, a formal or informal approach should be made by the client to the trainer /assessor/RTO Manager/DIRECTOR.

The client completes a Complaints Form to commence the process.

For further information, see Current Training Complaints Policy/website.

Course Fees

Current Training has developed a fair and equitable process for determining course fees, refunds and payment options.

Flexible payment options

Current Training accepts various methods of payment for course fees. Payment for courses can be made in the form of cash, Visa card, MasterCard, Direct Deposit or PayPal. Some card transactions have a surcharge applied.

Course fees are payable in advance and enrolments are considered tentative until payment is received.

Qualification enrolments

Fees for qualification program may be paid via a payment arrangement in advance. As full qualification payments are discounted, this payment method incurs a surcharge.

Student Fees User Choice 2017-20

Student Contribution Fees

(a) Student contribution fees, that are mandatory to be paid under the user choice funding policy, are the non-government financial contribution to the cost of the training and assessment services provided by the PQS (the fee is paid to the PQS).

(b) Current Training will detail its fees and charges policy, including full costs, method of collection, refunds, and exemptions prior to enrolment and provide access to this written policy to apprentices and trainees.

(c) The Current Training will retain evidence of student contribution fees charged and collected for all students, except for those students deemed as fully exempt. In addition, evidence must be retained for all students whose circumstances have been deemed as totally or partially exempt from student contribution fees.

(d) Student contribution fees under the User Choice program are set at $1.60 per nominal hour for each unit of competency/module to be calculated at the commencement of the unit of competency/module. Student contribution fees may be adjusted annually, and Current Training will be informed by the department of any changes to the student contribution fees.

(e) Current Training will not charge more than the student contribution fee amounts contained in this policy, except as required periodically by the department.

(f) Current Training may only charge less than the student contribution fee if in accordance with sections 2.6.2 or 2.6.3 of the user choice 2017-20 policy.

(g) When the participant converts from a school-based apprentice or trainee to a full-time or part time apprenticeship or traineeship, student contribution fees must be charged for training and assessment for any units of competency not yet commenced. This does not apply when the participant is a Year 12 graduate and is undertaking a high priority qualification as identified by the department.

(h) Where Current Training must collect a student contribution fee, it may be paid on behalf of the student by their employer or a third party unrelated to the PQS but cannot be paid or waived by Current Training (whether directly or indirectly), unless approved in writing by the department.

Partial exemption

Current Training must charge 40 per cent of the student contribution fee where the participant falls into one or more of the following exemption categories:

(a) The participant was or will be under 17 years of age at the end of February in the year in which the PQS provides training, and the participant is not at school and has not completed year 12.

(b) The participant holds a Health Care Card or Pensioner Concession Card issued under Commonwealth law, or is the partner or a dependant of a person who holds a Health Care Card or Pensioner Concession Card, and is named on the card.

(c) The participant issues the PQS with an official form under Commonwealth law confirming that the participant, his or her partner or the person of whom the participant is a dependant, is entitled to concessions under a Health Care Card or Pensioner Concession Card.

(d) The participant is an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person. Acceptable evidence is as stated on the Training Contract and AVETMISS VET Enrolment Form.

Full exemption

Current Training may apply full exemption from the student contribution fee where the participant falls into one or more of the following exemption categories:

(a) Where payment of the student contribution fee would cause extreme financial hardship, then Current Training may waive these fees.

i. The fee waiver process should be in place at the time of the participant's enrolment.

ii. Current Training has a reasonable internal process to manage an appeal about the outcome of an application under financial hardship.

(b) Where the Queensland Government, as represented by the departmental officer responsible for the User Choice budget, advises in writing that fees are optional. On receipt of such advice, Current Training may choose not to collect the student contribution fee. In this circumstance, any decision by Current Training not to collect fees does not create a liability for the department. Current Training may not apply for reimbursement by the department of fee revenue foregone. Refer to the User Choice 2017–20 Qualification and Price List, as published on the department's website, for information on where fee exemptions are applicable.

Current Training apply full exemption from the student contribution fee where the participant falls into one or more of the following exemption categories:

- (a) where credit transfer/national recognition has been applied to a unit of competency/module
- (b) the participant is a school-based apprentice or trainee
- (c) the participant is undertaking a qualification as part of the Skilling Queenslanders for Work – Work Skills Traineeship program.

Free training for Year 12 graduates

Current Training will not charge a student contribution fee to a Year 12 graduate who:

- (a) commences an apprenticeship/traineeship within 12 months of completing Year 12 (that is, by the end of the calendar year following completion of Year 12), and
- (b) meets the participant eligibility in 2.2.2, and;
- (c) enrolls in a high priority qualification identified by the department.

Current Training must retain evidence of participants who are deemed to have completed Year 12 in Queensland and hold a Senior Statement issued by the Queensland Curriculum and Assessment Authority, or equivalent certification.

Additional charges

Employer/industry Current Training may seek additional charges from the employer/industry. Any additional charges must be negotiated up-front and disclosed to the employer/industry prior to the participant's enrolment.

- d) Transfer to another "Client" – Prior arrangement no later than one week prior to the course. An administration fee is applicable for all transfers to another client.

RTO Cancellation of courses

Current Training reserves the right to cancel a course if insufficient enrolments are received prior to course commencement. Clients already booked in these courses will be notified. If a course is cancelled, a full refund of all monies paid by a client for the course will be made within seven (7) days. Current Training has financial safeguards in place to ensure that all pre-paid fees are available for refund in the case of cancellation by Current Training.

Refunds User Choice Policy 2017-20 (ONLY)

Current Training (Qld) has a refund policy that meets the requirements of the Standards for NVR RTOs. This policy also includes:

- (a) the provision for full refunds to participants for student contribution fees charged for training delivery that has not commenced at the time of the cancellation of enrolment Page 19 of 23 User Choice 2017–20 Policy
- (b) the provision of proportionate refunds where the participant has withdrawn from a unit of competency/module
- (c) the provision of refunds to employers/industry for additional charges paid beyond the participant and government contributions.

Current Training will not charge participants for:

- (a) the provision of materials essential to achieving competence
- (b) the development and supply of a training plan
- (c) the development and supply of the initial training record

Equal Opportunity

Current Training is committed to equal opportunity policies and principles, as they affect clients and employees to ensure the elimination of discrimination and harassment.

Rights and Responsibilities

Current Training has a legal and moral obligation to provide equal opportunity in employment and a learning environment free from harassment for employees, contractors and clients.

Current Training is committed to providing an environment which recognises and respects the diversity of employees, contractors and clients. Current Training is committed to providing a work and study environment free from harassment, vilification and bullying and supports the rights of all employees, contractors and clients to work and study in a safe and healthy environment free from such behaviour.

Current Training will:

- Ensure that employees, contractors and clients understand that these types of actions and behaviour will not be tolerated in the work/study environment.
- Request that any behaviour which could be considered harassment, vilification or bullying cease immediately.

All employees, contractors and clients have a role to play in eliminating harassment, vilification and bullying by not encouraging or showing support for harassment, vilification or bullying aimed at work or study colleagues. This can be achieved by:

- Refusing to join in with these types of actions and behaviours.
- Supporting the person in saying no to these behaviours.
- Acting as a witness if the person being harassed decides to lodge a complaint.

If an employee, contractor or client feels harassed, vilified or bullied, the employee, contractor or client is encouraged to inform the person where the behaviour is unwanted, unacceptable and/or offensive. If the employee, contractor or client feels unable to approach the person, or if the behaviour continues following their request that the behaviour cease, the DIRECTOR should be contacted.

As a client of Current Training, you have the responsibility to:

- Act to prevent harassment, discrimination and victimization against others;
- Respect differences among other staff, clients and contractors, such as cultural and social diversity;
- Treat people fairly, without discrimination, harassment or victimization;
- Refuse to join in with these behaviours;
- Supporting the person in saying no to these behaviours;
- Acting as a witness if the person being harassed decides to lodge a complaint.

Discrimination

Discrimination is treating someone unfairly or harassing them because they belong to a particular group. It is against the law to discriminate against a person because of their age, sex, pregnancy, disability (includes, past, present or possible future disability), race, colour, ethnic or ethno-religious background, descent or nationality, marital status, sexuality or gender identification.

Both direct and indirect discrimination are against the law:

- Direct discrimination - means treatment that is obviously unfair or unequal.
- Indirect discrimination - means having a requirement that is the same for everyone but has an effect or result that is unfair to particular groups.

Harassment, Vilification and Bullying

All employees, contractors and clients have an equal opportunity to work and study. Current Training will not tolerate behaviour which is of a harassing, vilifying or bullying nature.

It is against the law for employees, contractors and clients to be harassed during the course of their work or study because of their sex, pregnancy, race (including colour, nationality, descent, ethnic or religious background), marital status, disability, sexuality, HIV/AIDS status or transgender. Federal anti-discrimination legislation applies to staff, contractors and clients.

Harassment

In general, harassment is behaviour which is unwanted and that humiliates, offends or intimidates a person, and occurs because of a person's:

- Race, colour, ethnic or ethno-religious background, descent or national identity.
- Sex.
- Pregnancy.
- Marital status.
- Disability (including physical, intellectual and/or behavioural/psychiatric disability; past, current or future disability; actual or presumed disability).
- Sexuality (male or female; actual or presumed).
- Transgender.
- Age.

It is unlawful for a person to be harassed due to a relationship to or association with a person of a particular race, sex, marital status, disability, homosexuality, transgender or age.

Harassment in the work and study environment can be overt or subtle, direct or indirect. It can be verbal, non-verbal or physical. Harassment can occur when power is used incorrectly.

Harassment is not always intended. Actions and behaviour which one person finds amusing or unimportant may offend or hurt another person.

Examples of harassment include:

- Intrusive or inappropriate questions or comments about a person's private life.
- Unwanted written, telephone or electronic messages.
- Promises or threats to a person.
- Physical violence or the threat of physical violence or coercion.

Vilification

Vilification is the public act of a person which incites hatred towards, serious contempt for, or severe ridicule of, a person or group of persons on the grounds of race, sexuality, transgender or HIV/AIDS status.

Examples of circumstances and behaviour that may constitute vilification on the basis of a person's race, sexuality, on transgender grounds, or disability (HIV/AIDS) etc are graffiti, speeches or statements made in public, abuse that happens in public, statements or remarks in a newspaper, journal or other publication, on radio, television or other widely accessed electronic media such as internet, email etc. People wearing symbols, such as badges or clothing with slogans, in public, gestures made in public, posters or stickers in public space.

Bullying

Bullying behaviour can refer to the actions or behaviours of a person to another that intimidates, degrades or humiliates the person. It may include verbal abuse, behaviour intended to punish such as isolation, exclusion from workplace activities and “ganging up”. Repeated “put-downs”, aggression, threats and poorly managed conflicts of opinion may be part of bullying behaviour. It can occur between people such as managers and employees or contractors, co-workers and clients.

Sexual harassment

Current Training will not tolerate sexual harassment in the learning or work environment.

The Current Training deplores all form of sexual harassment and seeks to ensure that the work and study environment is free from such harassment. Implementation of this policy is the responsibility of all persons.

Sexual harassment is unlawful. The harasser may be held liable for unlawful actions and be required to pay damages. All employees, contractors and clients have the right to work and study in an environment free from sexual harassment.

Forms of sexual harassment

Sexual harassment may take many forms. Often people do not realise that their behaviour constitutes sexual harassment, but they must be aware that behaviour that is acceptable to one person may not necessarily be acceptable to another. Sexual harassment is any unwanted behaviour of a sexual nature by one person to another at work or in a work-related setting. Examples of sexual harassment include, but are not limited to:

- Insensitive jokes and pranks.
- Lewd comments about appearance.
- Unnecessary body contact.
- Displays of sexually offensive materials, for example, calendars or posters.
- Requests for sexual favours.
- Speculation about a person’s private life and sexual activities.
- Threatened or actual sexual violence.
- Threat of dismissal, loss of opportunity and so on, for refusal of sexual favours.

Complaints

All complaints regarding equal opportunity matters are treated seriously and investigated promptly, confidentially and impartially.

Privacy

Current Training abides by the Privacy Act and respects clients, staff and trainer/assessors’ right to privacy.

As a RTO, Current Training is obliged to maintain effective administrative and records management systems. This involves the collection and retention of personal information from clients in secure client records.
